

Flood & Hurricane Information

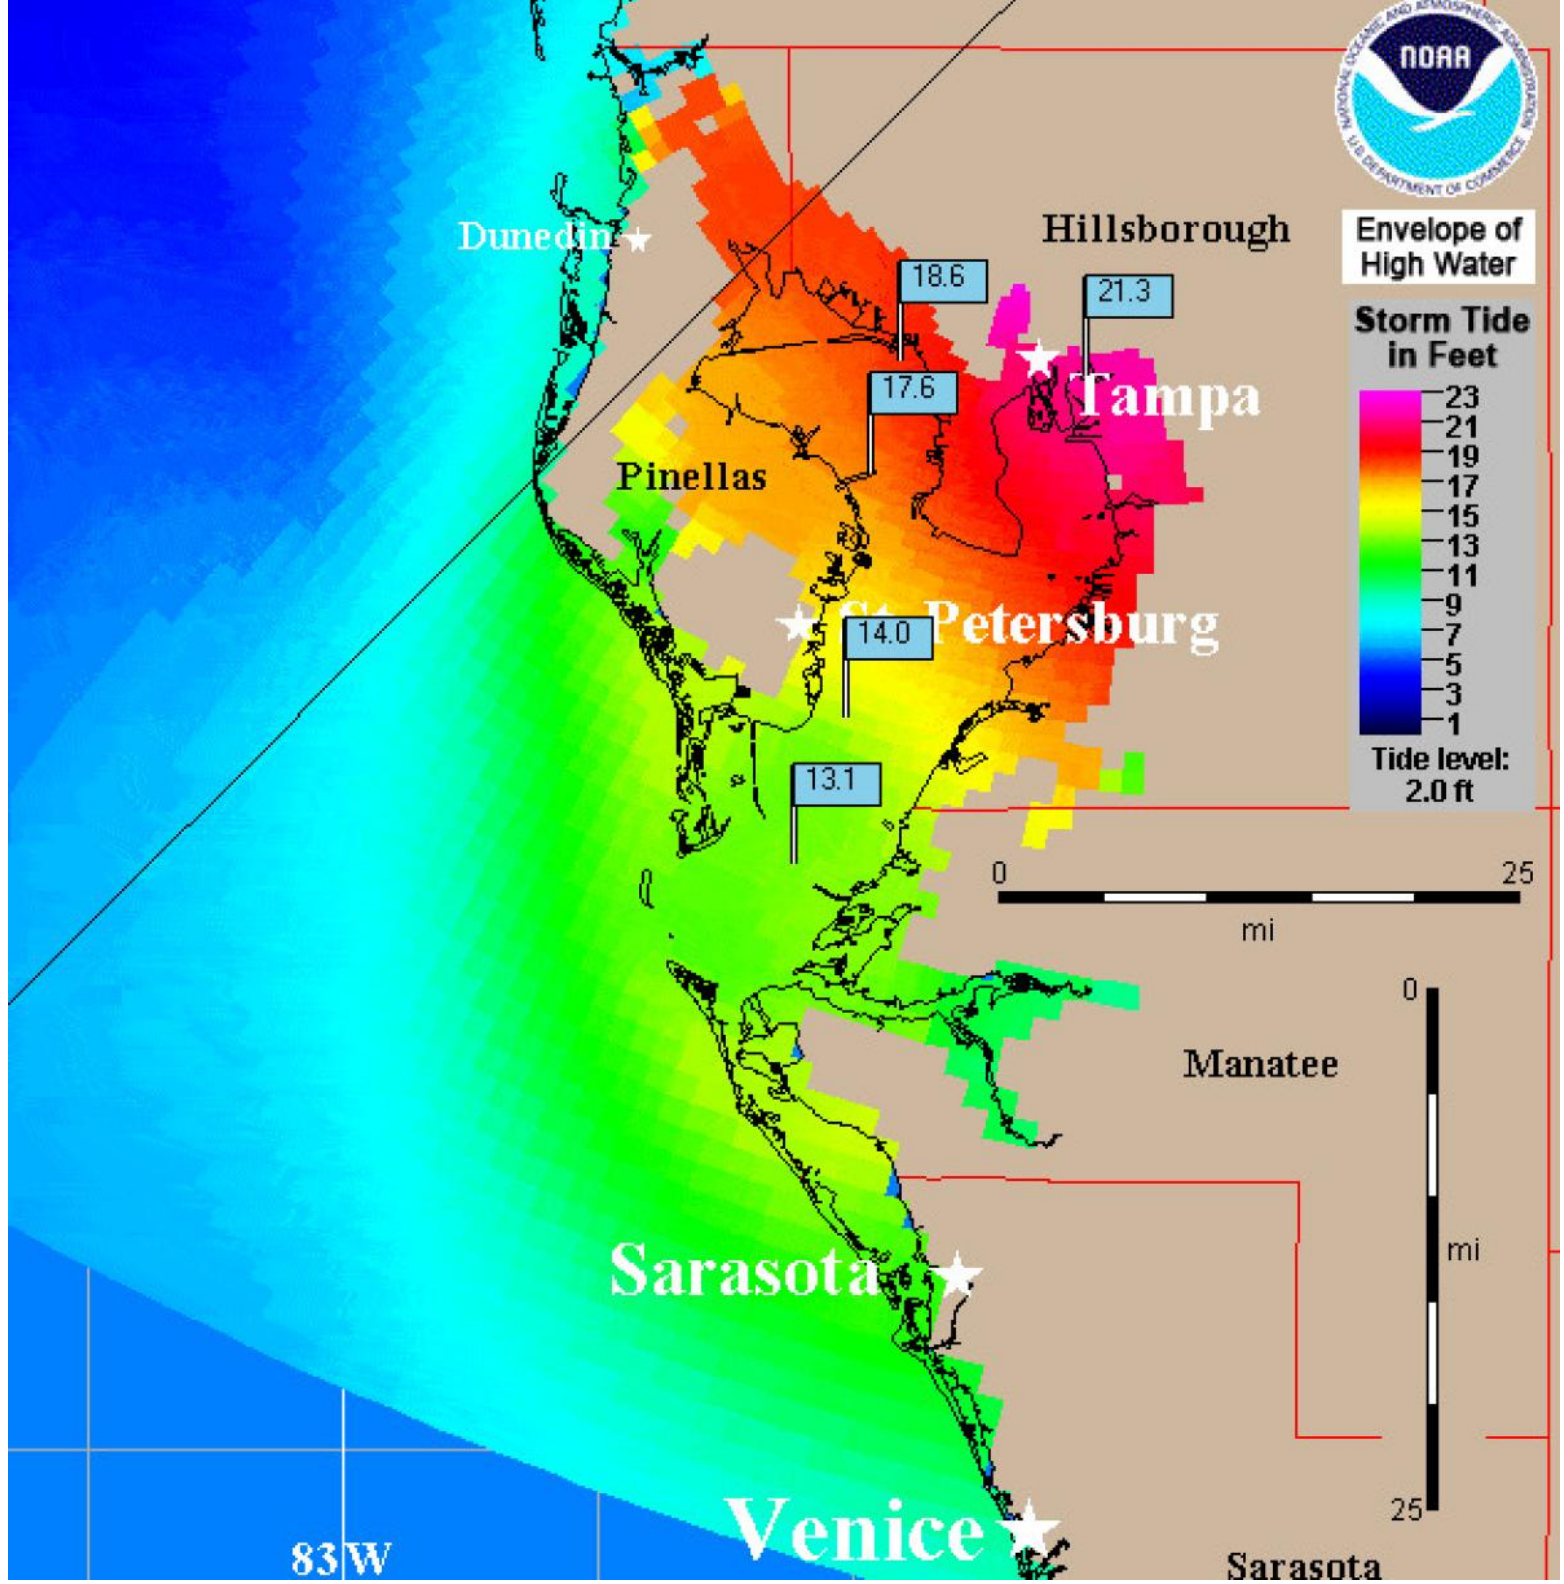

Hurricane Season begins June 1st and ends November 30th. Be sure you stay prepared!

- Register for Special Needs Transportation
-

- Flood Risk Calculator
- FLOODSMART \(FEMA\)
- Know Your Zone
- Pinellas County Emergency Services
- Pinellas County Hurricane Guide
- Post-Storm Property Owner Guidance and Permitting
- Radar Loop-Tampa Bay
- Special Needs Information
- Hurricane Preparation by the Red Cross
- SBA When Disaster Strikes 2022

Preparing Makes Sense

Disaster Preparedness for Seniors: Aging on the Suncoast

NOAA Develops Potential Storm Surge Maps

The video below and report describes the simulated evolution of Hurricane Phoenix and outlines the results from FEMA’s disaster loss-estimation model, which measures the devastating effects of the simulated catastrophe on the Tampa Bay region’s people, buildings, infrastructure, economy, and social systems.

Supporting Documents

Hurricane Preparation by the Red Cross 73.34 KB

SBA When Disaster Strikes 2022 1.18 MB

NOAA Develops Potential Storm Surge Maps 1.12 MB

Post-Storm Property Owner Guidance and Permitting.pdf 136.5 KB